

new Sharkskin for summer

Sharkskin is 100% windproof to allow you to enjoy your watersports all year round in any weather. The new 'performance garments' use compression technology in the arms and shoulder area which is great for muscle recovery. The new material is lightweight, SPF30+ and breathes, making it perfect even during summer.

"The new Sharkskin Performance is the perfect summer sea kayaking/ training paddling top.

"It is constructed with a combination of Sharkskin three layer windproof fabric around the body core and UV Lycra on the arms, shoulders and across the upper back (across your lats).

These tops are warm in the right places, comfortable, yet cool in the summer sun. It looks damned sexy too." – Rob Howarth

"This top is lightweight with lots of mobility, UV protection and nice high neck. The zip front is great when you are working hard and need to cool down." - Steve Smith
